

Lisa Coughlin

Summary Ms. Coughlin has over 20 years experience in developing and managing database and web-based information systems.

Employment 2003 - Present      Cyclac Corporation      Alexandria, VA

Information Systems Manager

- Development, maintenance, and management of web-based information systems for Cyclac's clients

1997 - 2002      Analysts International      Seattle, WA

Technical Consultant

- Database systems development for Boeing Company's Sales and Marketing information systems

Major Projects

Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration

Supported the development, maintenance, and management of web-based information systems including PHMSA's Stakeholder Communications website, the Integrity Management Database, Community and Technical Information System.

Produced reports from the various Cyclac database systems to evaluate pipeline operator performance and in support of PHMSA management decision-making.

Boeing Company

Supported database system development and management which included systems for determining airplane performance, tracking airport and carrier data and following world trade commodity flows. Worked with airline analysts to determine how schedule, traffic, cargo and geographic data could be synthesized and displayed for marketing presentations.